How will we provide advice to you?

You will be provided with a Statement of Advice (SoA) if we provide personal advice that is based upon your personal circumstances, needs and objectives. An SoA explains the reasons the advice is appropriate for your relevant personal circumstances and goals, and discloses the costs and benefits we will receive if you proceed with the advice. There may be a fee charged for the preparation of your SoA. Please refer to the FSG Part 2 for more information about advice fees.

In some instances, we may provide further advice, for example at a review, where a Statement of Advice is not required by law. In these cases we will provide you with a Record of Advice (RoA) which will set out limitations in the scope of the advice, the basis for the advice, and any fees associated with the advice.

A Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) is provided with all SoAs where a financial product is recommended. The Product Disclosure Statement is a document provided by the product issuer which explains the features, limitations, terms and conditions of the product. Prior to making a decision about any product, you should carefully read the PDS.

There may be instances where we provide advice that is not based upon your personal circumstances, needs and objectives. This is General Advice, and you need to consider its appropriateness in light of your personal circumstances before acting on the advice. Where a particular product is mentioned, you should obtain a copy of the PDS for the product discussed and consider it before making any decision. Please contact us to obtain a copy of the PDS.

If you do not wish the Provider to advise you in relation to the financial products, the Provider may deal in or arrange those products by carrying out your instructions (ie product placement on an execution-only basis). If you do not obtain advice, you face the risk that the financial product/s you select will not fully take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs.

You should carefully consider any warnings, which may be contained in the SoA, RoA PDS, or provided by other means, prior to making any decision about a strategy or financial product.

Will anyone be paid for referring you to us?	We may engage in referral practices with external parties. There may be occasions where AUPFS representatives engage in commission sharing and referral arrangements with other AUPFS representatives or external parties.
